

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kingston-Jamaica

February 3, 2009

On January 14, the Kellogg Company announced a voluntary recall of certain Austin® and Keebler® branded Peanut Butter Sandwich Crackers and select snack-size packs of Famous Amos® Peanut Butter Cookies and Keebler® Soft Batch Homestyle Peanut Butter Cookies because the products have the potential to be contaminated with Salmonella.

On January 15, 2009 Wisynco-Group Limited, local distributors for the Kellogg Company commenced an island wide removal of Keebler® Toast and Peanut Butter Sandwich Crackers and Keebler® Cheese and Peanut Butter Sandwich Crackers from the shelves; please note that no other products were involved in our recall.

.Kimberly Lawson, PR, Sponsorship and Events manager at Wisynco Group Limited says that "we are and have been over the last 46 years, committed to providing excellent quality of service to all our consumers and customers our commencement of and assiduous dedication to the completion of this serious recall is an obvious indication of this promise.

Finally, if anyone has any of these products, they can return them to the local store where they bought them for a full refund.
